Competitive advantage

Here's how Professor Duncan Light from Liverpool Hope University describes us: Your company is one of the few that understands the Western market for Dracula. Your product appears to be very innovative! For many Romanians Dracula means Vlad Tepes but for people from the UK, America etc. it means of course the vampire Dracula. I agree with those people who say that Dracula is a way to get foreign tourists into Romania creating an opportunity to show them all the other things the country can offer.

Our promise:

Beside offering you the best value for money, our main goal is to provide you with a genuine and unique Transylvanian experience, familiarise yourself with ancient customs and traditions, make the acquaintance of craftsmen and local artists, and get a better understanding of the geography and history of areas visited. We can only succeed if we achieve our goals and therefore we will do everything in our power to make your trip a memorable, exciting experience.

A 2 day self guided break departing from the Romanian airport of your choice. You can decide for yourself the level of classification for accommodation in the citadel, from hostel style dormitories to an exquisite, intimate 5* medieval hotel.
The Halloween Party is without a doubt one of the most remarkable events anyone could experience in Transylvania. There is Transylvanian cuisine, folk singing and many exciting surprises to prove that every legend has truth in it! The first event you'll enjoy is performed by the Transylvanian Knights. The "Witch Trial" will reveal the medieval rituals of judgment for a witch, testing the courage of the guests. Should anyone dare to handle the sword and fight along with the knights to save the damned woman, will be anointed as a knight. There can be no Halloween Party without Dracula! His majesty will join you and even make a few confessions about his wedding. "Dracula's Wedding" is a non verbal performance set on stage by a professional band of actors. Since we're all very familiar with dramas, we'll then focus on having a fabulous time, and what a better way to do this than dancing! You will be introduced to the melodious and cheerful traditional Romanian folk songs! You will attend The Ritual of Killing of the Living Dead to discover who was dwelling the magic realm of Transylvania prior to Bram Stoker's vampires.
Close to midnight we will all step out to watch the moon and count down the minutes to 12 o'clock, a time of powerful magic when all bad wishes come true! (Let's just say that your neighbors' cat won't bother you anymore). A glass of champagne and the traditional Rest in Peace song will delight us afterwards. The Count has a gift prepared for the Best Howl at the Moon (after a glass of strong red wine boiled with cinnamon you won't lack courage or strength!)
The culinary event of the evening is the Halloween cake, shaped as a coffin and delicious as fresh blood. This might just be the first coffin you have tried and you will like it!
The DJ will then take over the party! The last person standing will receive a bottle of wine courtesy of the house and Romanian tips on how to handle the hang over.

Testimonials

I thought the service from your office at Transylvania Live was excellent. I could ask for nothing more. Raul obviously knows the mountains very well indeed and had planned the trip very carefully, he was extremely helpful. When things were tough and my knee was hurting quite badly, Raul offered to take heavy things from my pack and carry them himself. This was excellent. I was very satisfied, and very pleased that we booked the trek with you.
